Don't "Sizzle" this summer

Until a man has changed from tight-fitting summer underwear to loose, kneelength, sleeveless garments, he hasn't fully enjoyed the summer season.

After the change is made he's enthusiastic-won't have any other kind. Some have such enthusiasm that they wear the light, loose kind all year round—and they are a pretty healthy bunch.

We have an excellent assortment in all styles, so that you can get the sort that fits your own particular theory. -from 75e to $3.00 per suit.

OPENING OF AIRDOME.

OPENING OF AIRDOME.

Tomorrow night Salt Lake's newest, and which is bound to be the most popular place of summer amusement, the Airdome, located in West Third South street, will be opened. The first week's bill will be "The Frolics of 1910," a clever musical comedy. In the company are a number of bright comedians, fine singers, and a bevy of very pretty chorus girls. The place is practically completed, and in splendid shape for the opening. During the summer a line of musical comedies will be presented by the Airdome Musical Comedy company, which is composed of a number of very bright and intelligent actors and actresses. In the company is Will Phillips, the well-known local tenor, who will be seen and heard to splendid advantage. Among the others are Mullen and Coogan, a team of clever comedians, who are also good singers and dancers.

INDIANS AT SALTAIR. A real Indian wedding, the first one that has ever taken place publicly in full tribal ceremonials will occur at the Hippodrome at Saltair next Monday aft-The Indians are now at the domiciled in the Hippodrome, resort, domiciled in the Hippodrome, where they have set up a complete Indian village. It includes their tepees, war and peace decorations and all the paraphernalia of the tribe. Saturday, Sunday and Monday evenings the Indians will give exhibitions of rites and ceremonials connected with their beliefs. There will be the sun, buffalo, war and scalp dances, besides different phases of Indian life and characteristics. It will be the most interesting Indian exhibition ever given in this dian exhibition ever given in this country. The decay of the red man each year makes these events the more in-teresting and instructive. CHANGE IN PICTURES. There will be an entire change of program at all of Manager Florence's motion picture theatres at the matinee performances this afternoon and the bills will run for an entire week. Well-balanced programs have been arranged for all houses, and at each one several excellent features are announcseveral excellent features are announced as headliners. Among the subjects at these houses, the Luna, Isis and Elite, are the following: "A Tragic Idyll," "Strenuous Massage," "The Treasure Hunters," "The Girl and the Bandit," "The Heart of a Heathen Chi-Bandit, "The Heart of a Heathen Chinee," "The Princess and the Peasant," "The Brothers, the Sisters and the Cowboy," "The Land of Oz," "His Wife's Testimony," "Friends," "Lessons in Charity," "Sam's Artistic Beard," "Dorothy and the Scarecrow of Oz," and many others.

Commencing with the matinee today, the program at the Shubert theatre will be changed, and an excellent bill consisting of five big vaudeville acts, three reels of motion pictures and illustrated songs. Among the feature vaudeville acts for the week are the vaudeville acts for the week are the Star Comedy Trio, presenting the roaring farce, "A Woman of Few Words," Hulbert and DeLong in a new and novel playlet, "Psalm 103-6;" F. H. Stansfield in his original conception, "The Country Parson;" the Two Weights in the pantomimic comedy, "The Haunted Inn," carrying all special scenery and electrical effects; the continued success, John Post, tenor; the Shubert orchestra and pictures and songs complete the bill. Amateurs every Friday night.

AT THE MISSION.

It is safe to say that if every young-ster knew of a dog and pony show that is now in this city they would be begging their parents for a dime to go and see it. The youngsters as well as the older folks who have seen the dog the older folks who have seen the dog and pony act as presented by Louise Stickney at the Mission this week unite in declaring that it is one of the best animal acts ever seen in this city. The entire bill is a good one. Especially is this true of the acrobatic act of the Largards and the little play presented by Mr. and Mrs. James R. McCann.

CASINO THEATRE. Patrons of the moving picture shows are enjoying a rare treat in this week's excellent program at the Casino. The biograph feature, "Ramona," is possibly one of the most interesting subjects yet presented in picturedom, while for good clean comedy nothing could equal the two other subjects shown.

DANIELS THEATRE.

The matinee and evening performances today of "Pretty Peggy" terminate the engagement at the Daniels theatre of Willard Mack, Maude Leone and their players for the present sea-son. Musical comedy will be the sum-mer attraction at the Daniels, starting June 11, and in the meantime the cozy theatre will be thoroughly renovated and redecorated by Manager Florence.

"ST. ELMO" TO CLOSE. Today is the last opportunity play-goers of Salt Lake will have of seeing the Belasco production of St. Elmo. This beautiful version of Augusta Ev-ans' ever popular novel has had a most successful week, playing to large and enthusiastic audiences.

"THE WHITE SQUAW." D. M. Clarke has achieved a triumph in writing "The White Squaw," in which pathos, comedy and tears predominate. The company engaged by the management to present the play is one of exceptional ability, among the members being such well known people as Miss Della Clarke, Miss Grace Cahill, Miss Mindie Kohman, Joseph Gillow, Mitchel Lewis and William F. Kohman.

INDIANS VISIT ORPHEUM. "Heap good!" was the laconic verdict of a band of twenty Bannock, Shoshone and Blackfoot Indians from Fort Hall agency, Idaho, who witnessed the performance at the Orpheum theatre last night. The Indians are those who were brought here by R. A. Grant and will appear at Saltair Beach today. Whenever anything in the performance struck their fancy last night the red men would smile and comment among themselves, but when one of them broke the tribal custom and laughed out loud he astonished his squaw, who, with twin papcoses, sat at his side.
